

The Boss' Last Rallying Cry

By James J. Montague

Say, wot's the matter with them ginks? Can't they be learned to see that they ain't sent to represent nobody only me?

They're got a nerve to try to swat that charter bill o' mine.

Send up the district leaders, ginks, an' 'all' 'em into one.

Can all this talk that's goin' round about the public will;

My will's the will that runs this state—I gotta have that bill.

Get John McGocey on the job to land that Brooklyn bunch;

Tell Cassidy to ease up there an' give his gang a hintin',
Tell Stillwell he has got to get them geezers in the Bronx or certain Senators I know will get it on the conks.
This ain't no time for pleasant words; if that there bill don't win
The Mayor an' me are due to find we're just about all in.

That they can go and cast their votes to put me on the blink.
The papers all has filled 'em up with poisonous ideas
About a lot o' phony rights to vote just how they please,
Say, chase up there an' put 'em straight, if that bill don't go through
With all them jokers, what are me an' Gaynor goin' to do?

Soak them insurgents on their blocks—they landed on me once;
Just let 'em know they can't repeat that rough stuff line o' stunts.
Tom Ryan's with us from the jump—get that through all their beam;
And if they're any good at all they're wise to wot it means.
If they can work that scheme they've got to toin the charter down,

The people pretty soon will think they really own the town.

RATEPAYERS TO VOTE ON BYLAWS MONDAY

PROVIDE FOR PURCHASE OF APPROACH TO EAST END BRIDGE AND CHILDREN'S SHELTER

- No. 4 For all citizens resident east of First street and north of Clark street, 1252 Kinisno avenue.

Polls open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Two bylaws of considerable importance to the city of Edmonton will come up for endorsement by the ratepayers on Monday.

Bylaw No. 257 provides for the expenditure of the sum of $31,000 for the purchase of property from Marjorie to Island street, to provide a sidewalk on this side of the river to the east end bridge. The property is purchased, will be re-subdivided after an approach to the bridge has been graded, giving a grade of no greater an angle than six per cent.

"This is a bylaw of not a little importance," said Mayor Armstrong, this morning. "We are now spending the sum of $161,000 on a bridge to connect the city on the north bank of the river with the city on the south side, and by the expenditure of the comparatively insignificant sum now asked for, we can provide for the bridge a first class approach. There is a six per cent grade on the Strathcona side. We can get as good a grade on this side. The property on either side of the road will all be re-subdivided and resold, at a certain profit to the city."

Bylaw No. 258 provides for the raising by debentures of the sum of $10,000 for the construction of a children's shelter. This work the city must of necessity undertake whether the bylaw carries or not, since the legislation carried at the last session of the local house makes the provision of a children's shelter compulsory. The shelter, therefore, becomes an all intents and purposes an empty form.

At the forthcoming session of the legislature the city will apply for an amendment to the charter to free the municipality from the necessity of submitting bylaws for works of this character, whose construction the government makes compulsory.

LAY MAINS FIRST; GAS PLANT LATER

NO MONEY LOST TO CITY IF ALD. DR. MCINNIS PLAN IS FOLLOWED

If the project which is to be brought before the council by Alderman McInnis proves feasible and acceptable to the majority of the council, the bylaw which is now being prepared for submission to the ratepayers on the municipal gas question, will provide for the laying of mains only. The installation of an artificial gas plant being left over until such time as the city has ascertained whether a suitable natural gas supply cannot be obtained at an available distance.

Alderman McInnis if of the opinion that it would be folly to go ahead with the construction of a plant for the manufacture of artificial gas until the prospects, (which he considers very bright), of obtaining natural gas, have been investigated.

"During the past week," said he, in conversation with the Capital this morning, "I have taken the matter up with D. B. Bowling, head of the Dominion geological survey, and he tells me that 20 miles east of Tofield, at a depth of from 2,000 to 2,500 feet, lies the same strata as that from which the now island supply is derived. He prepared to spend $10,000 in drilling, if we undertake to open up this natural gas supply, a drill hole of sufficient size to allow of boring operations being continued to a depth of 2,500 feet."

"Chief I shall advise him that the council call for tenders for the laying of gas mains throughout the city, these will be the same whether we finally get artificial or natural gas—and proceed at once with the boring operations. The operations could be carried on throughout the winter, and might be completed in six or seven months if unexpected difficulties are not met with."

"Calgary is now piping gas from Howland—a distance of 150 miles. Edmonton will only have to pipe hers a distance of 20 miles or so, and if we are successful, our operations."

A conference of the commissioners, city engineer and aldermen, will be held on Monday night for the purpose of deciding on the appointment of a gas expert, and the starting of a money bill to provide for the installation.

DATES ARE FIXED FOR BYE-ELECTIONS

At a cabinet council held in the government buildings at 5 o'clock last evening the issue of writs for the bye-elections necessary to fill four vacancies in the local legislature was authorized, and the date of the bye-elections set for October 21. This vote made possible the opening of the house during the first week in November, as originally announced by the premier. Nomination day is fixed for October 21, one week before the date of the election.

The vacancies are in Lethbridge, where the election of W. A. Bertram to the federal house necessitated his resignation from the Alberta legislature; Pincher Creek, where a bye-election is necessitated by the Warlock's resignation to take his seat at Ottawa; Calgary, where H. H. Bennett, member of the provincial house, has resigned after gaining a federal seat; and Chetivert, last represented since the death of A. J. McArthur, the late member.

Returning officers have been appointed as follows: Calgary, Dr. H. Ormiston; Lethbridge, J. M. Lowndes; Lethbridge, P. A. McKenzie; Pincher Creek, H. W. Tricker.

In Lethbridge only have both candidates been already nominated. S. J. Shephard will contest the seat in the Liberal interest, and Dr. Stewart in the name of the Conservatives.

In Pincher Creek John Ross, a farmer, is spoken of as the Liberal. Bledy and Major Kinnaird, as the Conservatives.

In Calgary, T. J. S. Skinner, Liberal, is in the field. The Conservatives have not yet named a man, though Dr. Blaw is mentioned.

In Chetivert the Liberals will nominate Monday night. J. A. McArthur of Medicine Hat, brother of the late member, is the likely man. Of the Conservatives it is believed that S. McArthur, ex-M.P., has been asked to put a formal suit, but no declaration. Other nominees likely are Harold Dyer of James Shonibee, the former defeated candidate.

Many Lives Imperiled by Wasau Dam Break

Black River Falls, Wis.—Everything on four business streets, comprising the heart of town, has been swept away. The North Western railroad bridge, over the Black river at that point is still standing but is swaying as though the heavy spans were supported by a single post. The river has fallen below its normal level, and no persons are even allowed to pass on foot. At Hatfield, 10 miles above Black River Falls, the river had today cut a new channel and appeared where it was never known to run before. The main channel has moved over 500 feet into what has until been dry land. At the dam the pressure has increased and the waters have fallen below the crest. The main part of the big structure is still standing. The power house, two miles down from Hatfield was flooded.

Two thousand people in this city are today without food or shelter after spending the night on the hills watching the waters from the flood of the Black River overrun their town today, through Mayor Metcalf, sent out an appeal to the people of the country for assistance. UNCLE SAM NEEDS
CANADIAN WHEAT

The American Agriculturist has placed the wheat crop of the United States for 1911 at 639,000,000 bushels. Home consumption, at the rate of six bushels per capita, will call for 540,000,000. The remaining 99,000,000 will do little more than provide sufficient for next year's seedling and account for waste.

United States is therefore, to all intents and purposes, already on an import basis and must have Canadian wheat, whether there is a tariff to pay or not.

A GOVERNMENT-OWNERSHIP MAN
ON THE TRANSCONTINENTAL COMMISSION

The report which says that Sir Thomas Tait is to be selected as chairman of the National Transcontinental Commission will be good news to the west, always providing that Borden does not too securely tie his hands, in which case Tait will not stay long.

Tait is a Canadian who, after an extended experience as a railway man in this Dominion, went to Australia and on the completion of confederation put the state-owned railways in the Antipodean commonwealth into a workable condition. In so doing he had a very difficult job, for there were three different gauges, an enormous amount of misfit equipment and a very much mixed management owing to the fact that each Australian state owned and operated its own railway system independently previous to confederation.

Tait is a state-ownership man straight, and is almost the only thorough and practical railway man on the North American continent who has had the bravery to come out in the open and allow his convictions to be known.

If, as is expected by a great many eastern Canadians, the Grand Trunk Pacific does not intend to take over the Transcontinental, but purposes, after all the expensive construction, to throw the road back on the government's hands, Tait is the man who could take the system over and, connecting it up with the Intercolonial, extend the state-owned Canadian railway system to the prairies.

The only wonder about Tait's appointment is how it comes that Borden appoints a government-ownership man to the Transcontinental Commission.

PUBLIC NEEDS PROTECTION FROM COAL OPERATORS

Stories of coal shortage coming from the south indicate that what the province of Alberta needs at the present juncture is another coal commission which would be in continuous session and would have power to serve the public interest without reference to private stupidity, a commission which would not allow citizens to freeze to death in a country blessed with the most magnificent coal resources on the continent.

The principle behind the private ownership and control of any natural resource is so simple as to need no explanation. For the purpose of assuring the citizens engaged in other occupations, and who must have fuel, a continuous supply of coal, certain citizens are given access to the coal on terms, set out or implied, that they provide this continuous supply. Were the operators, in acquiring the coal, to allow it to be known that they did not consider it incumbent on them to supply coal no government would be so foolish as to place the coal resources in their hands.

By refusing to pay the wage which the market demands while they have at the same time been unable to turn a wheel without the aid of the members of the organizations which they have locked out, the operators show themselves willing to ruthlessly ignore their plain duty as stewards of a public resource with the development of which they have been entrusted, and they thereby forfeit every claim to public patience and respect.

No blacker story of the crass selfishness and brutal disregard of the rights of humanity has ever been told than is found in the actions of the coal operators who from sheer stubbornness refuse to work the mines with which they have been endowed out of the public heritage while the settlers dependent thereon for fuel face terrible suffering if not death as a result.

Were the government of the province to step out in this time and as a matter of public necessity take possession of the coal mines, paying the wages and guaranteeing the settlers a supply of fuel during the winter, the operators would suffer no wrongs for which they would not have themselves to blame and would have no grievance which the public would be bound to respect.

It is all well enough to talk of the sacred rights of private property and the immunity which industry should enjoy from interference by the government, but just as in cases when the mob spirit breaks out there comes a time when individual liberty must be curtailed in the interests of public safety, so in cases where corporate arrogance runs amuck there comes a time when the safety of the public is paramount and it is the duty of the government to protect its citizens from the stupidity of those alleged captains of industry who would see the defenseless settlers damned to the cruel tortures of a merciless winter rather than give in and admit defeat at the hands of the organizations which they have squandered their millions and the country's comfort in the hopeless task of attempting to break up.

THE MONA LISA
By Elbert Hubbard

On the walls of the Louvre for nearly four hundred years had hung the Mona Lisa of Leonardo da Vinci. This picture has been the cooperation and inspiration to every portrait painter who has put brush to palette. Well does Walter Pater call it "The despair of Painters."

Unlike so many other works attributed to Leonardo, no doubt exists as to its authenticity. The correspondence relative to its sale yet exists, and even the younger proving its payment may yet be seen.

We call the Mona Lisa a portrait, and we have been told that La Gioconda sat for the picture and how the artist invented ways of amusing her, by stories, recitations, the luring strains of hidden lutes, and strange flowers and rare pictures brought in as surprises to amuse and cheer.

That Leonardo loved this woman we are sure, and that their friendship was close and intimate the world has guessed; but the picture is not her portrait—it is himself whom the artist reveals.

Away back in his youth when Leonardo was a student with Verrochio, he gave us glimpses of this same face. He showed this woman's mysterious smile in the Madonna, in St. Anna, Mary Magdalene, and the outlines of the features are suggested in the Christ and the St. John of the Last Supper. But not until La Gioconda had posed for him did the consummate beauty and mysterious intellect of this ideal countenance appear.

There is in the face all you can read into it and nothing more. It gives you what you bring to the picture. It is as silent as the lips of Atreus, as voiceless as the Sphinx. It suggests to you every joy that you have ever felt, every sorrow you have ever known, every triumph that you have experienced.

This woman is beautiful, just as all life is beautiful when we are in health. She has no quarrel with the world—she loves and she is loved again. No vain longing fills her heart, no feverish unrest disturbs her dreams, for her no cringing fears haunt the passing hours—that ineffable smile that plays around her mouth shows plainly that life is good. And yet the circles about the eyes and the drooping lids hint of world-weary, and speak the message of Kierkegaard and say "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."

La Gioconda is infinitely wise, for she has lived. "That supreme pose is only possible to one who knows. All the experiences and emotions of manifold existence have etched and molded that form and face until the body has become the perfect instrument of soul."

THIS IS MY BIRTHDAY

James Whitcomb Riley.

James Whitcomb Riley, familiarly known as the "Hoosier Poet," and perhaps the most distinctively original poet the west has ever produced, was born in Greensfield, Ind., October 7, 1853. His education was received in the public schools of his native town. As a youth he worked as a journeyman sign painter. Later he joined a small theatrical troupe, re-writing their lines and improvising songs for them. He finally went to work in a newspaper office in Anderson, Ind., and began his literary career by writing humorous essays in the Hoosier dialect. The originality of his verse attracted attention and before long he obtained a position on an Indianapolis newspaper. In 1882 he published his first poem, "The Old Swannie" and "Love's More Poems," which met with immediate success.

STRATHCONA LOCALS

The only street which will be opened through the university grounds, Seventh Avenue North, has now been widened and graded in front of the building, a distance sufficient to give a right of way to the driveway building from the south. For the present this avenue will be used exclusively for university purposes and a sidewalk is being constructed to give entrance to the new building along the route.

With the completion this week of the last block of 12-foot concrete sidewalk along Main street south from First avenue this section of the thoroughfare is now ready for the paving. From this contract the sidewalk workmen will move to Second avenue north where two blocks will be constructed between Main and Second street west. An extensive program of roadwork will still await the concrete mixer and only a very late fall will allow the contract to be carried out.

Early morning motorists along the city streets these days may see many of local business dealers for the country in quest of the plentiful but elusive grain chicks and not a few of the marksmen tucked with good bags of game to show for their day's sport. However it appears that while plenty of the birds are falling within early in the season and many of the hunters start the flock with but indifferent success.

The three-story building which has been in course of construction at Whittle avenue for Mr. H. A. Hubert is now practically finished and will take place as one of the city's best business blocks. One section of the street door has been taken by Esser & Company, and they have already removed their stock of meat. Furniture from the former store in the Gable building to the new quarters. It is understood that the other section of the building will be occupied by F. A. P. P. Jeweller. The building is well fitted up throughout and space within it will be in great demand.

Work on the new $20,000 Federal agency on First street east has been proceeding rather slowly but it is expected that the basement will be completed within a few days. It is the intention of the contractors to extend the walls up to the second floor this fall before winter sets in. If all possible local military men are naturally somewhat disappointed that the building will not be available for use during the coming winter. However, they are promised next summer one of the finest military houses in the west.

Fronting in the west end building this fall are the handsome houses which are being erected on the university grounds for Dr. Taylor and other professors of the university. The residences will be among the best in the city and will be ready for occupancy by the new year in all probability.

One of the smallest bits of history ever seen in the city came in by express from the south yesterday, contained in Major Marshall, who acquired it at the coast recently. The prop is a Sheffield cut and stands less than two feet in height. A small crane is used to lower the little animal through in safety with the care exercised by the expressman.

Last evening in the Wye Road mission hall a Harvest Thanksgiving supper was held which was partaken of by a large number of housewives. The supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock and was followed by a miscellaneous program of songs, recitations and social entertainment. The main interest of the evening centered about the holding in the kitchen competition. The entries in this contest were of an order sufficient to reflect additional honors upon the ladies of the district who are already famed as good cooks. The proceeds of the evening, which were very satisfactory, will be contributed to the building funds of the mission.

Holy Trinity church will be specially decorated for the services tomorrow morning and evening in celebration of the Harvest Thanksgiving. Special prayers and hymns have been prepared for the occasion by the choir and the services will be specially suited for the day.

ERECT MONUMENT TO NOTED ACTRESS

Genova, Oct. 7.—A committee has been formed, comprising Messrs. P. and S. Messers, with temporary headquarters at Paris, to erect a monument to the celebrated actress Rachel, who was born at Mung, a little town near Zurich. It is proposed to place the statue as best as possible to the birthplace of the Swiss actress, and with this aim the authorities were approached by the committee, with very satisfactory results. Colonel W. Messers, in reply, stated that one of the best sites in the town would be the place of the statue, and if required a suitable stone monument would be provided for the monument.

NEW RECORDS BY SCHOOL ATHLETES

SUCCESSFUL FIELD DAY HELD YESTERDAY—NUMBER OF TRACK MARKS LOWERED

Strathcona, Oct. 7.—The field day yesterday afternoon in connection with the annual sports of the city schools were voted by everyone present at the athletic park during the forenoon a big success. Several hundred pupils were on hand and a fairly large number of parents and teachers were present to witness the progress of the sports. For three hours after the pupils reached the grounds from a march through the streets the race course presented an animated scene and events were run off as rapidly as the competitors could be lined up. Each contestants faced the starter for every race, the great number of pupils competing made the sports highly interesting. Amusement also was not lacking in the program, as any person who saw the exciting and humorous struggles in the foot and shoe races will testify. Fortunately the day was fine and warm, rather poor track the most could scarcely have been held under more favorable conditions.

The students yesterday demonstrated again that athletes of more than ordinary calibre are in the ranks of the Collegiate. In the senior events were established some track marks which compare favorably with the work recorded at the average senior track. In the junior classes also it is to be found several centers of the track. For the excited championship medals of gold in the senior section two students had for the moment these honors O. Lynn and G. Lavelle. In the junior class also it is likely that another gold medal will be added as the evening will remain in division for the year. In the junior section of the Collegiate, A. Bassett, G. Lavelle, and G. Skinner. The road race for the high and public schools will be run off next Monday, weather permitting. Tennis and basketball tournaments will be held next week.

'VARSITY' HAS BIG FRESHMAN CLASS

REGISTRATION AT UNIVERSITY TO DATE PASSES 150 MARK—42 IN FRESHMAN CLASS

Strathcona, Oct. 7.—The growth of a university is naturally estimated by the increase in the freshman class. That the University of Alberta is rapidly expanding is best proved by the fact that the first year class in attendance this term is far away the largest ever accommodated by the institution. Registrar Hugh speaking of the work said last night that 14 freshmen were in the first year class in attendance this term is far away the largest ever accommodated by the institution. VISITS INTERIOR COAST PROVINCE

AFTER SUMMER TRIP THROUGH TERRITORY OPENED BY G.T.P. J. M. McLEAREN RETURNS

Amongst the visitors of the week, to Edmonton, is Mr. J. M. McLaren, who has returned from a long summer trip through that portion of British Columbia which is being opened up by the Grand Trunk Pacific.

On the last day of his trip, Mr. McLaren left Edmonton for Prince George, the head of the steel, bound on a voyage of exploration into the country one hears so much of in these days.

From Prince George he went by way of the railroad camps to the westward. At Tele Jumbo camp he visited the two hills in which such large deposits of mines have been found and whilst in the country he called at the shack of a settler who had a large flock of sheep, doing good duty for glass in the window.

After staying a few days at the place he will then start off down the Fraser river in a canoe. The trip was taken in easy stages and several of the new settlers' homes were visited. The whole valley of the Fraser is staked on both sides and in many places the settlers have already taken actual possession of their pre-emptions. Whilst some of these settlers are old time trappers and hunters many of them are from the eastern towns and express their delight in its modern life terms at the things they find in their new homes.

During the whole summer a party of from thirty to fifty men has been at work clearing the forests of Fort George of the scrub that grows on the grading the streets and laying out the town generally. The scrub extends some two miles from the bank of the river, in which stretch the ground rises slightly towards a low range of hills which lie to the south and west. These hills are covered with heavier growth of small spruce and pine.

After spending a matter of three weeks or so at the Fort, Mr. McLaren went on down the Fraser river towards Ashcroft, and thence to the coast, visiting several of the coast districts.

WOMAN IS INSULTED, MURDER IS RESULT

FOREIGNER'S FIGHT IN WINNIPEG ENDS IN ONE DEATH—MURDERER IS ARRESTED

(Western Associated Press.)

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—A standing affair, which resulted in Peter Prok's death, occurred at a boarding house at 146 Lincoln avenue, at six o'clock yesterday afternoon, before five eye-witnesses.

Without serious provocation, Mania Lesnik, plunged a pocket knife into the pit of Prok's stomach, inflicting a deep wound. Lesnik then twisted the knife about in the wound but had inflicted, and when his victim dropped to the floor, made a dash for freedom, but was prevented from making good his escape by Constable Hargreaves, who was in the immediate vicinity of the scene of the murder.

Eye-witnesses state that Lesnik, whose home is in Norway, came to Fred Prok's boarding house for the purpose of annoying Mrs. Prok, whom he had been teasing on previous occasions. Mrs. Prok, at first thought that Lesnik was only playing with her in a good natured manner, and treated his attentions as a joke.

Lesnik continued his attentions in an offensive manner, and used language which was insulting. He declared that his work was an insult. Mrs. Prok, who was a woman of strong character, never let herself be bullied by the man. She told him to get out of the house, and he did so.

When matters had reached this stage, Prok, who was a man of strong character, never let himself be bullied by the man. She told him to get out of the house, and he did so.

FRY'S, Since 1729

Throughout the world "FRY'S of Bristol" is known as the synonym for cocoa and chocolate in their purest and most delicious forms. The history of the cocoa trade is the history of the colonial business of J. S. FRY & SONS, Limited, of Bristol. It is the oldest firm of chocolate and cocoa manufacturers in the world, for letters patent were granted to the ancestor of the present generation of the family by King George in 1729. The Bristol works of J. S. FRY & SONS, Ltd., comprise eight great buildings and employ more than 6,000 hands. The purity and excellence of their chocolate and cocoa have won more than 230 Grand Prix, Gold Medals and Diplomas in open and international competition, and in the course of the long history of nearly two centuries the firm has received many marks of Royal favor. Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, in the early part of her reign, appointed FRY & SONS by Special Warrant Manufacturers of Chocolate and Cocoa to the Royal House.

Makers to H.M. George V

His Majesty King George V, whose warrant FRY'S held as Prince of Wales, has honored them with his Royal brief as King, as have also his Majesty the Queen, her Majesty Queen Alexandra, her Majesty Queen Margherita of Italy, their Majesties the King and Queen of Spain, and their Majesties the King and Queen of the Hellenes. A similar mark of Royal favor came long ago from France, when, in 1807, the late Emperor, Napoleon, by a special brevet, appointed them Manufacturers of Chocolate and Cocoa to the Imperial House, and Messrs. FRY still have the honor—one that they prize very highly—of numbering her Imperial Majesty the Empress Eugenie among their illustrious patrons.

This record of honors is as magnificent as it is unique. It is a tribute born, after nearly two hundred years' competitive industry, the firm of FRY'S is still foremost, that while advancing with the times and adopting and initiating the most modern methods and machinery, it has maintained unswerving its standard of the highest purity and quality in its goods and the fullest value for money. Whatever bears the name of "FRY'S" is of the best. By no other means could the firm have so triumphantly stood the test of time.

NEW PALACE TO COST MILLIONS

WILL BE OCCUPIED BY KING AND QUEEN OF SPAIN—PEO-PLE'S GIFT

(International News Service)
Madrid, Oct. 6.—A new palace on the site of Magdalena at Santander, built at a cost of several million pesetas, subscriptions having been made by rich and poor alike, will shortly be occupied by King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, to whom the people of Santander have given the palace as a gift. The furnishings, the cost of which has been defrayed by the city, were of a sumptuous character.
The new royal residence is approached by a bridge from the main land, and has only one entrance. The King and Queen are greatly charmed with the palace and have thanked the people of Santander for their generosity. Henceforth, the royal family will spend the summer months at the new palace and at the Miramar palace at San Sebastian. Upon leaving Madrid the court will first go to Santander.

INTEREST IN INDIAN MURDER TRIAL.

Danville, Ind., Oct. 7.—Not since the famous Hashaw murder case has this section displayed such a lively interest in a criminal trial as it now manifested in the Moon murder trial, which is scheduled to begin Monday. The defendant, James Harvey Moon, is accused of the murder of Constable Wilhoite and of Mrs. Nora Moon. The double tragedy occurred last May. Constable Wilhoite was shot and killed at the Moon home, where the officer had come to serve a writ of restitution. The killing of Mrs. Harbeck, a cousin of Moon, occurred about a quarter of a mile from the Moon home, where Wilhoite was killed.

LOOTERS ARE GIVEN HEAVY SENTENCES

STRONG FORCE OF POLICE IS NECESSARY TO KEEP ORDER AT CARDIFF, WALES

(Globe Cable Service)
Cardiff, Wales, Sept. 26.—The sentences which are being passed on the rioters and looters in connection with the anti-Jewish riots in Monmouthshire, are creating a lot of feeling locally. At Treowar Henry James Carpenter, aged 38, and his wife and son were all sent to prison for six months for stealing and receiving a quantity of clothing. George Henry Williams and Arthur Weaver, of Beaufort, soldiers, were committed to the sessions on a charge of stealing tobacco pipes, and seven other defendants were either fined or sent to jail. Thomas Barber, of Treowar, was sent to jail for four months for assaulting the police, and William Henry Smith, an iron worker, hailing from Liverpool, was sent to jail for six months for throwing stones at the police. Evidence was given to the effect that Smith was in front of the crowd threatening to cut the policemen's heads off. The chairman of the bench said that they were determined to put a stop to such conduct.
A strong force of police were kept in readiness in consequence of trouble, which took place at Treowar on the previous evening. As the prisoners were being conveyed to the train for Lark the police were followed by a threatening crowd, who hooted and shouted. After the train left the station the police escort were followed by a hostile crowd, on whom the police had to turn on several occasions. The mob pressed round them and hooted and threw stones. The crowd followed a well known local Jew and started hooting him, but he succeeded in making good his escape.

ENGLISHMEN MAY ASSIST MANUEL

REPRESENTATIVE OF ROYALIST
PARTY APPROACHES PROMI-NENT BRITISH OFFICER

(International News Service)
London, Oct. 6.—Circumstances have just come to light which point to efforts having been recently made in London to assist through Englishmen, the Portuguese Royalists in their attempt to recapture the throne of Portugal for ex-king Manuel.
The advice of a member of the government was sought in the instance alluded to, and it was very pronounced against Englishmen running risks of capture, inasmuch as no official interference on the part of Ministers could be expected. The person approached was Lieutenant Colonel B. P. Driscoll, D.S.O., chief executive officer and secretary of the Legion of Frontiersmen, who was head of Driscoll's Scouts in the Boer war.
"Some time ago a gentleman called upon me," said the Colonel today, "and inquired whether I was willing to take up the matter of recruiting forces for Portugal. He invited me to see a high Portuguese official in London, but I told him that before going further in the matter I would consult a relative who is conversant with Portuguese affairs, having lived in the country, and was formerly a member of the House of Commons. The advice of a friend was not to commit myself in any way until he had ascertained the wishes of the British government. He saw a member of the government, who told him that they could not countenance such a movement at any cost."

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

New York, Oct. 7.—In all the Jewish temples and synagogues of the metropolis special services were held today in celebration of the feast of the tabernacles. This festival day is called in Hebrew "Sukoth" and falls upon the 15th of Tishri in the Hebrew calendar, and lasts eight days. The eighth day is called "the day of solemn assembly." The festival commemorates the harvest season of the ancient Israelites, who, in obedience to the divine command, left his house for the week of the festival, and took up his abode in a booth or tabernacle, and lived through as it were, an important epoch of his people's history, has thereby replenished the springs of Jewish sentiment. He was also thereby taught to remember that just as Israel in the wilderness was protected by God, so is he being guarded in his earthly pilgrimage.

Danger in Every Drop of City Water

There's safety and health in every drop of "Montserrat" or "Sovereign" Lime Fruit Juices. They destroy Typhoid Germs in drinking water.

We make this emphatic statement only after receiving the report of the experts of the Molson Laboratories of McGill University. Bacteriological tests made at these Laboratories show that both "MONTSERRAT" and "SOVEREIGN" Lime Fruit Juices kill Typhoid Germs and render city water absolutely safe to drink.

Protect your homes against the ravages of Typhoid. Make everyone—young and old—drink Limeade, made with "Montserrat" or "Sovereign." Thus and thus only, can you be certain that water will be safe to drink.

Note—The tests were made with "Montserrat" and "Sovereign" Lime Fruit Juices, which are pure juices from ripe West Indian Limes. Avoid cheap chemical mixtures often sold as lime juice, and be sure and procure either "Montserrat" or "Sovereign."

LLOYD-GEORGE IS OUSTED BY WOMEN

(International News Service)

London, Oct. 6.—While staying at Greifeth, in Wales, Mr. Lloyd George and a party which included Mrs. George, Mr. and Mrs. Masterman, Sir Francis Edwards, M.P., and others, set out with the intention of having tea on the river bank, a mile from Llanystedney. They had just entered a field, and, having lighted a fire, were preparing to take tea, when there appeared on the scene the woman who leased the ground. At the sight of the little party of pensioners on her domain, she became quite indignant, remonstrating violently and ending by putting out the little camp fire.

IS JACK JOHNSON SHORT OF MONEY

Reports That Big Black Is in Financial Stringency Appears to Be Well Founded—Is He Growing Fat? Will He Fight? ? ? ?

(By W. W. Naughton.)
 San Francisco, Oct. 6.—Is Jack Johnson broke? English Mrs. Grundy says he is. American Many Johnson says he is not—that he has $150,000 tied up in stocks and bonds, and in some manner that savors of cold storage.
 Jack, according to his mother, has the knack of making expenses as he goes along. If hard pressed he is likely enough to pawn a motor car or a bunch of diamonds, but when doing so he is merely temporarily embarrassed. He'll strike it rich again presently and will never, never, never encroach upon his next egg.
 Mother Says No.
 Mammy Johnson may know what she is talking about. Jack was never very much of a spender while in this country, and there is no particular reason to think that he has changed. When I say he was not much of a spender, I mean he had nothing in common with old Peter Johnson and a dozen other champions and near champions I can recall. Peter loved to treat his friends. Johnson believes in pouring libations on himself. No one ever heard of a crowd making merry at old Arla's expense.
 Gay Life in Blood.
 Of course, men change and it may be that the gay life of London and when the color heaviest get together. It is well for Johnson probably that he is the owner of short bouts and "no decisions," where the sport of the glove flourishes best. They say he has grown fat and whether these are the nights of short bouts, it be through bibulous habits or a combination of gross living and indolence, it is a symptom of going to seed.

It is sad.
 Woo to the fighter who waxes stout and has to be stripped of flesh in order to be brought back to ring proportions. The lives of other pugilists stress remind us that when the fat comes off again, something comes with it—in most cases everything. It was so with Sullivan at New Orleans, and it was so with Charley Mitchell at Jacksonville. Maybe it was that, and other things—which allied Jeffries at home.

I do not know whether Johnson is as fat as they say. I read one report which had him forty pounds overweight. If this is true Bill Johnson has to rid himself of the accumulation, I'll wager that whenever sees him in action on the occasion of his next appearance in the ring will say, "My! How he has slowed up!" I hardly think that there is much menace to Johnson's laze in a wrestling match. Johnson is a man of a certain size, and it is a matter of fact that a slaphash has been agreed upon.

A Big Kicking.
 It could hardly be supposed that Johnson and Langford would be footed enough to overlook the chance for a big killing the Fawcett law affords. The law in question is regarded as merely a temporary measure by those most deeply interested in it and for that matter, they are running it off the ground already. It is up to Johnson and Langford, through their agents, to announce something very shortly and I do not think we will have long to wait. When the affair comes off it will not be as brutal and blood bespattered as the Carl Morris-Jim Flynn contest.
 Johnson has little to fear from Langford. The latter has done nothing for quite a while to quiet the suspicion that he is falling away as a ring terror. But if Johnson has acquired the habit of getting fat and has learned to discriminate between the tastes of the various brands of London skin, there is a husky while man developing someone who will pound him out of the champion's coral within a year or two.

BATTLING NELSON WRITES THE GAME

Says Langford Can Beat Johnson—Johnson Never a Real Champion—Gossip of the Ring for Fifteen Years Past—Picks Champions in All Divisions

(By Battling Nelson.)
 Former Lightweight Champion of the World and One of the Greatest Fighters That Ever Stepped Inside a Ring.
 Just now the boxing game is coming in for a great deal of criticism in almost every section of the country. There are a great many people who believe that the sport should be abolished entirely. This should not be so, for boxing when properly conducted, is the greatest athletic sport in the world.
 The trouble with the game is the fact that all boxers, managers and promoters are not honest. The better element is making drastic efforts to drive out the crooks and the hoodlums, but they have not yet completed their task.
 Some reformers would limit the number of rounds, and away with saving decisions. The first idea is a good one and some had points to it. I believe in it. I believe in it. But, if we are to save the sport we must have plenty of six, eight and ten round bouts.
 When a title is at stake, however, I believe in the man fighting to a finish, where the man with the most strength and all-around ability is certain to come out on top.
 A large majority of people have the impression that the man with the most brawn is sure to win out in a finish fight. This is not so. If a fighter has not a good knowledge of self-defense and is lacking a clever man, he will be killed in pieces and forced to go down for the count before many rounds have been completed even though he may be one of the toughest scrappers in the world.
 Four and five years ago there were a great many more kickless pugilists than now. You can almost count the present day stars on the fingers of your hands. The second-rate, number about thirty, while there are still 200 third raters, who pick up a dollar here and there showing at midnight clubs.
 Jack Johnson appears to have a little on every white and black heavyweight in the country. The white heavies are a poor lot and most of them wouldn't have had a chance of obtaining a livelihood if they had been in their heavy weight and bulging muscles, but that is about all. A heavyweight who can't hit, stand punishment, can't get around the ring with some pretense at speed, is not worth the name.
 There are a great many people who believe that Sam Langford will soon lay defeat at the feet of Johnson. Langford were to meet tomorrow I would place my money on the Galveston Black. But if the meeting comes off in a year or two, it may be a different thing.
 Ever met Jack won the fight at Reno, he has been touring the world and living like a prince. Nothing has been too good for him. This kind of dissipation is sure to tell on a man's constitution after a while. It is more so true of a boxer, who must take some hard beatings, than it is of a person in some other walk of life.
 At his best, Johnson isn't much of a champion. He has never decisively defeated a man who has amounted to anything. His victory over Jeffries was a task which could have been accomplished by almost a dozen men. And what story can Jack claim by defeating Tommy Burns, never a first-class man? None at all. Burns claimed the heavyweight title when there was hardly a man in the class worthy of mention.
 The light heavyweight title rightfully belongs to Langford. Sam has kicked every man of his weight in the world and has also won one of his class and administered sound thrashings to about every heavyweight who would agree to meet him.
 Jack O'Brien was the last champion

SPANISH PRISONS NOW OVERFLOWING

ONLY QUESTION OF TIME UNTIL REVOLUTIONISTS WILL TRY OVERTHROW MONARCHY

Paris, Oct. 7.—The news from Spain is causing grave concern here for several reasons, one being the respectable certainty that some of the French revolutionary agents have had a hand in bringing about the remarkable state of affairs on the other side of the Pyrenees. Telegrams are few and brief. The "Temps" has received messages from San Sebastian stating that the situation shows improvement at Saragossa and in Asturias, as well as at Bilbao, but at Seville the strike movement is growing.
 The prisons in the province of Bilbao are overflowing, and throughout the country the magistracy and police are occupied with house searches and the seizure of arms. The preventive measures are extraordinarily elaborate, and the post office has received a "black list" with orders not to allow persons whose names are inscribed on it to make use of either telephone or telegraph. Such leaders as Perez Galdos and Pablo Iglesias are closely watched. All reservists and soldiers on leave have been called to their headquarters.
 Berkeley, California, is to have a municipal employment bureau. There are now 146 unions in the Hebrew trades of New York city. When President Taft visits Milwaukee this month he will speak on industrial topics before a public gathering of 2,000 employers and employees.

 "Yes, my son."

 "And today I found the same fault with America. Neither had a word of a great event."
 "You must have read carefully."
 "No, I was very careless."
 "What was it?"
 "About Papke knocking out the British champion middleweight and thereby becoming champion of the world!"

HIGH STRIKE IN YELLOWHEAD.

(Fort George Tribune.)
A rich strike has just been made in the Yellowhead district by an old Kamloops prospector. A big find of gold, copper and silver ore has been made on the Moose river, Yellowhead, by the Trec brother, who for years were prospecting in the Lardian. Another old-timer of the Lardian, who has made a good strike in the same district is Billy Howdow, who is claimed to have located one of the richest strikes of gold and silver ore ever made in the north country. With him in his new locations are associated Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and W. Douglas. The ore samples from these properties are now in Nelson being assayed and arrangements are being made to develop the property this winter.

LECTURE COURSE FOR THE WINTER

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR INTERESTING SERIES TO BE HELD

The Edmonton Society of the Archaeological Institute of America, which was formally organized last June by Professor A. J. Eaton of McGill University, Canadian general secretary, is now anticipating with keen interest the opening of the course of winter lectures to be given under direction of the society. Professor Alexander of the University of Alberta, local secretary, has just received word that provisional arrangements have been made as follows:

October lecture—Professor Harry L. Wilson of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, on "The European Tombs."

November lecture—Director Corbally of the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto, on "The Exodus of the Hebrews."

December lecture—Professor G. Caspar Ben-Gurion of Leipzig university, Germany, on "Mound Sites, the Monuments and Monuments."

January lecture—Professor Charles Knapp of Columbia university, New York city, on "The Human Theatre."

February lecture—Professor Hall of Washington University, St. Louis, on "The Isles of Greece."

March lecture—Professor Dr. Marlan I. Smith of the Canadian Geological Survey on "The Archaeology of Western Canada."

Professor Grayson, the foreign lecturer on the Canadian circuit this year, deserves a special notice. He has achieved high eminence in theological circles both in Europe and America by his important contributions to the study of the Biblical text as well as in the field of interpretation.

The society has made an earnest effort to reach all citizens of the Greater Edmonton who might be interested in archaeology, and it is conscious of the certainty of omissions. Professor W. H. Alexander, University of Alberta, Strathcona, would like to hear from any persons desiring of interesting themselves in the society's work and to explain to them the work of the archaeological institute in detail.
